Report of Operative G T Purdy

New Brunswick, N.J.
Sept. 27th, 1926

Interview with: JAMES GLYNN

Operative went to the Raridon Coal Company on Sanford Street and there interviewed Mr. Glynn in an effort to locate his wife. He stated that he has not lived with or seen his wife for the past three years and that he does not know her whereabouts. He stated that she worked for a man named Rolowitch at one time and that that man lived on Maple Street.

Operative also asked him again if he knows where Battle could be found and he stated that he has not seen him in five years. Glynn further stated that his wife did work for Mr. Revolinsky, but he does not know if she works for them any more.

Mr. Glynn also stated that he was never married to this woman, that he just lived with her, and when he found out that she was staying out with other men and spending his money on them, he left her and has not seen or heard of her since. Mr. Glynn had to return to work, so Operative left him.

Respectfully submitted:
